WHAT TYPES OF FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE ARE AVAILABLE?

Villanova University is committed to helping students from all financial backgrounds achieve their educational goals. Your program representative will work with you to identify the finance option that best suits your needs. From choosing the right loan, grant or scholarship to finding and filling out the correct forms, your representative will guide you from start to finish.

Federal Student Aid

Federal student aid programs are the largest source of student aid in the United States. Seize this opportunity by determining your eligibility with the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). For more information, visit VillanovaU.com/undergraduate-tuition-financial-aid.

Federal Pell Grant Program

Federal Pell Grants are available to students who are pursuing their first bachelor’s degree and who demonstrate exceptional financial need based on the information submitted on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid. Effective July 1, 2012, a student can only receive the Federal Pell Grant for up to 12 semesters, or the equivalent.

William D. Ford Federal Direct Loans

William D. Ford Federal Direct Loans are available to undergraduate students and are designed to provide students the opportunity to participate in paying for school. This loan must be repaid – typically via installment payments upon graduation. Students are eligible to borrow up to $12,500 per year.

Corporate Tuition Assistance

Many companies recognize the need for their employees to enhance their skill base through education. Corporate tuition assistance may cover all or a portion of your tuition, and may even pay for books and materials. Benefits vary by company, so check with your employer for more details on your organization’s tuition assistance program.

Alternative Loans

Villanova University understands that an undergraduate degree entails a significant financial commitment. Many financial institutions offer student loans that can supplement your other sources of financial aid and make it easier to manage your education expenses. Check with your bank or credit union to see if it has a student loan program.

State Grants

Certain states allow residents to receive state grant assistance for study at Villanova University. Students are responsible for checking with the respective State Higher Education Agency to determine if they can receive state grant assistance for study in distance learning.

Convenient Payment Options

All major credit cards are accepted for tuition payments and related expenses. To help minimize finance charges, Villanova offers several interest-free payment options that divide tuition and other fees into multiple payments over the course of each term. Your program representative can provide more details.
PROUD TO EDUCATE OUR NATION’S FINEST
Villanova University salutes the outstanding individuals who are serving in the U.S. Military while pursuing higher education. Villanova is committed to helping those servicemembers achieve their education goals, offering exclusive military savings and an online classroom that’s accessible from virtually anywhere in the world.

Military Tuition Assistance
The U.S. Military’s tuition assistance program pays up to 100% of tuition fees for full-time, active-duty servicemembers in any branch of the military, up to a maximum of $250 per credit hour and a personal maximum of $4,500 per fiscal year for each student.

Post-9/11 G.I. Bill®, Montgomery G.I. Bill and Educational Assistance Programs*
Military servicemembers and veterans may be eligible for various education benefit programs, including the Post-9/11 G.I. Bill, Montgomery G.I. Bill, Reserve Educational Assistance Program, Post-Vietnam-Era Veteran’s Educational Assistance Program and others. Villanova’s online undergraduate program is approved for the use of VA benefits. For current information, refer to gibill.va.gov.

College Fund Programs
The Department of Defense offers a College Fund program – also referred to as a G.I. Bill Kicker – that can increase a servicemember’s basic monthly education benefit. Each service branch determines eligibility and benefit amounts for its College Fund. This benefit is an add-on to the G.I. Bill and disbursed with an individual’s monthly G.I. Bill payments.

College Loan Repayment Program
The College Loan Repayment Program is an enlistment incentive offered by several branches of the U.S. Military and Reserves. It repays a portion of eligible student loans for non-prior service enlisted personnel. The program is currently offered by the Army, Navy and Air Force, as well as the Army and Navy Reserves.

Exclusive Military Savings
Active-duty servicemembers, guardsmen, reservists, veterans, military spouses, and dependents of deceased or disabled veterans are eligible to receive 10% off the regular online undergraduate course tuition. Contact a program representative for details.
